Since Spicegro's inception in 2014, we have focussed our efforts on sourcing, manufacturing and supplying only the finest, freshest and top-quality products. Our comprehensive knowledge, unwavering quest for quality, dedication and love for flavours have driven us to grow into a well-established organisation over the years. We always maintain the strictest and highest level of product and employee safety, customer service, efficiency, innovation, accreditation, profitability and growth.

Our team's passion for food and fine craftsmanship, together with our combined experience of more than 80 years, has enabled us to create a sustainable and holistic offering. Our panel of experts personally trade, source, blend, manufacture and develop our products to ensure they meet our clients' needs.

How we spice things up:

We ensure that we stay abreast of changes, influences and trends within our industry. Our recipe for success includes continuous investment in research and development and a seasoning of aromatic innovations, while preserving our special blend of values and customer service.

Our special flavour stems from a variety of factors – we:

Source at farm level:

Our team of professionals know when and how to buy. We take everything into consideration, from monitoring the weather to seeking quality crops and buying strategically.

Innovate:

Our team continues to find innovative solutions to meet our client and industry needs. We are able to source products in a very short timeframe and ensure a continuous supply thereof.

Serve our customers:

We strive to offer exceptional customer service throughout.

Know our industry:

Our team's knowledge and experience ensure that we stay abreast of industry challenges, especially when it comes to our trading and sourcing.

Are consistent:

Consistency, in every aspect of what we do, is very important to us. From ensuring that our prices are competitive, that we have a continuous supply of products, to the finer details of consistency in our products' components, such as flavour, aroma and colour. We believe that consistency is key to flourishing partnerships.

Believe in quality:

Quality is to us as water is to nature – it is the beating heart of our organisation. That is why we unceasingly aim to enhance our products and services to perform better in every aspect.

Grow together:

We know that a company is only as good as its employees and only successful due to the support from its suppliers and customers. We invest in our relationships with our valued employees and supporters. An organisation that grows together stays together, and ultimately we all benefit from our special mix of mutual beneficial relationships.

In our quest to be the most innovative and client-centric spice company through strategic collaboration and partnerships, we have ensured that we continue to grow and innovate. Currently we offer professional and convenient services to our clients that include:

- Blending
- Milling
- Supply
- Customisation (additional blends), and
- Packaging of the products.

As part of our mission to offer exceptional customer service, we custom blend our products to suit our clients' specific needs. As these products require professional and personal attention, we ask that you contact us directly with your requirement/s. No job is too big or too small for Spicegro.

We offer a comprehensive variety of:
